

Brian Maher, Certified Sommelier

Brian is a certified sommelier with over 20 years experience in the wine industry. He has worked for Wine Spectator magazine, as well as in some of the finest restaurants in the area including Restaurant David Drake and the Bernard's Inn.

Brian is available for:

- Cellar consultations – Brian will come to your home and consult with you on your wine needs, taking into account your current collection, your wine aging and drinking habits, and preference in style, as well as purchasing as a potential investment
- Private wine dinners - Brian will work in consultation with you or a private chef/caterer to pair wines with each course. He will then present each wine at your dinner providing background on the wine maker, descriptions of the grapes used, as well as the rationale for each pairing
- Private wine tastings - Brian will help select the wines appropriate for your tasting, whether you want to highlight a region of the world, a particular style, or a wine maker. He will organize and run the tasting, presenting each of the wines with detailed descriptions
